Approved For Release 2004/01/16: CIA-RDP75-00149R000500440016-5

EVENING - 35,690

aide hits charge 4

today that Prof. Stanley J. Stein's have to treat him and deal with description of Nixon as the "sec-him accordingly under no ret architect" of the Cuban in further Illusions about flery rebvasion plan was "not quite cor e's in the tradition of Bolivar." rect."

Al Moscow, researcher for Nixon's book "Six Crises" and a momber of Nixon's gubernatorial icampaign staff, told the Times gur Hoover and former ambassafrom Los Angelos that Nixon dors to Cuba Arthur Gardner and for the invasion," as Prof. Stein tion.
Charged in a tolk at Stanford "Early in 1960," he continued, Al Moscow, researcher for Nix- Nixon noted that he held a min-Tuesday eveming mapped the kwasion plan.

STEIN'S COMMENT.

the details/to others: Given our administration, and the covert Hum."

book, Nixon discussed councils, against Castro, bans. had a three-hour conference > by CIA, State Department the election. House In " I stated fally that I was transinged Castro was either incredibly naive shout A spokesman for former Vice discipline and that we would today that Prof. Stanton said

MINORITY VIEW

"the position I had been advo-"The invasion plan for Cuba cating for nine months finally pre-was laid out to consultation with vailed, and the CIA was given the whole Eises lower administration instructions to provide arms, amtion and head as part of that, munition and training for Cubans Moscow explained. But it's not who had fled the Castro regime quite correct to say that he and were now in exile in the Unitand States and various Latin Amer He advised the training of ican countries. This program had guerrilles in the castro been in operation for aix months regime in vilatever, way our before the 1960 campaign got unmilitary men flought it was pos der way. It was a program, however, that I could not say one word about."

Prof. Stein clay commented: Later Nixon added: "I had long There in many architects favored and fought for ta tougher that sketch, he concept and leave line against Castro) within the present is of information about training of Cuban exiles as well the originatine plan, it might be as the new overt quarantine polmore experiste at the moment ky were programs due, in subhat he was an architect stantial part at least, to my efforts."

Nixon charged in the book that of the C ba issue in the Democratic presidential nominee esidential campaign. He John F. Kennedy had been briefed by CIA chiefs on the invasion and long been arging a plan and endangered it by publicly er policy, within administ advocating aid to anti-Castro Cu-

After this charge was disclosed lastro when he visited Wash- last March, President Kemedy, back in April, 1959. through his press secretary, der that conference, I wrote nied that he had been told of the ential memo for distribu-finvasion plan until 10 days after

pproved For Release 2004/01/16 : CIA-RDP75-06/49R000500440016-5